

with other senses

You are invited to the launch of

with other senses

the latest book of poetry from Rebecca Maxwell

Sunday May 31, 2015,
2.30pm
Meeting Room,
Balwyn Library
336 Whitehorse Rd, Balwyn

with other senses
will be launched by

Molly Travers

publisher, journalist and university lecturer in creative writing

Guest Speaker:

Errol Broome

award-winning author and internationally successful writer of children's literature

'Rebecca Maxwell possesses a depth of vision reserved for the few. For those of us who see only with our eyes, her poetry casts a new light on the world around us. Here are poems that touch the heart, make us smile, and waken us with their wisdom.'

Errol Broome, literary patron Society of Women Writers Victoria

'Provocative, teasing, scratchy, playful and indignant, a bemused love letter to nature in all its manifestations, including human.'

Kristin Henrv. poet